Have Learned that Neglect is Dangerous.

The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is far too serious to be overlooked. It's the small, neglected troubles that so often lead to serious kidney ailments. That pain in the "small" of your back; that urinary irregularity; that weak, weary, worn-out feeling, may be nature's warning of kidney weakness. Why risk your life by neglecting these symptoms? Reach the cause of the trouble while there is time—begin treating your kidneys at once with a tried and proved kidney remedy. No need to experiment—Doan's Kidney Pills have been successfully used in thousands of cases of kidney trouble for over 20 years. Doan's Kidney Pills are used and recommended throughout the civilized world. Endorsed at home. Read Hopkinsville testimony.

J. D. O'Daniel, shoemaker, 603 O'Neal Ave., Hopkinsville, says: "I had a dull headache and a soreness across the small of my back. I felt languid and my kidneys acted irregularly. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Elgin's Drug Store and they soon strengthened my back and put my kidneys in good shape."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. O'Daniel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Big Distinction.

He—"Of course there's a big difference between a botanist and a florist." She—"Is there, really?" He—"Yes; a botanist is one who knows all about flowers, and a florist is one who knows all about the price people will pay for them."

Ho, Hum!

"It must be wonderful to be famous," said the optimist. "Shucks!" responded the pessimist. "Fame is merely a pedestal on which the victim is placed so that the world will have a better chance to throw mud at him."

ARE MANY USELESS MOTIONS

Shaving, for instance, is field in which services of efficiency expert are greatly needed.

One of the most fantastic persons in the world is the public official who before he can write a postal order or a tax receipt has to make preliminary curls of penmanship in the air. Observed by the scientific eye, we are much more fantastic ourselves.

If our effective motion could be registered on a visual target our record would be found to resemble that of savages who use ammunition without a sight on their guns. If we think that the ordinary soldier's marksmanship is wasteful, we may well look to ourselves. Our life is peppered with motions that fly wide and wild. It begins on awaking. We stretch our arms—waste motion! We ought to utilize that gesture for polishing our shoes. We rub our eyes—more foolishness. We should rub our eyes on Sunday for the rest of the week.

But it is in processes like shaving that scientific management is really needed. Men flatter themselves that they shave with the minimum of gesture. They believe that they complete the operation under five minutes. But excusing their inaccuracy, do they know that under the inspection of the scientific manager their performance would look as jagged as their razor blade under the microscope? The day will probably arrive when a superman will shave with one superb motion as delightful to the soul as the uncoiling of an orange-skin in one long unbroken peel.—New Republic.

"Pa, what's a necessary evil?" "One we like so much we don't care about abolishing it, my son."

Changed Dresses Change Lovers.

Dorothy and Elsie were virtually twins, not only in appearance but in taste. Each had a dress the other one liked, and they decided to trade. It happened that Dorothy and Elsie had previously met two young men, and being only slightly acquainted with the girls, they judged each girl by the dress she wore, with the natural result that they traded girls. Time passed. The inevitable happened. As their wedding day approached they were still unaware of the mistaken identity. But, of course, a confession was necessary, and each young man had to originate new names to call his best beloved and so the crisis passed.—Indianapolis News.

Not What She Expected.

Grandma had argued that the walk to and from the orchard was too long for a wee girlie, but finally consented for Patty to go after exacting from her a promise, no matter how tired she might get, she would not ask to be carried. So they started, grandma and Patty, and the puppy. All went well till, on the way home, Patty's feet grew heavy, and, in spite of a brave effort, she could not keep up, while the puppy, evidently suffering no ill effects from his journey, capered in wide circles about them. A weak little voice called, "Grandma," and grandma who thought she knew what was coming next, was surprised when the voice drawled on: "I wish I was a puppy."

Greek Athletes Were "Crooked."

Crookedness among athletes was invented by the Greeks. The practice of one man allowing another to win a contest through a previous arrangement was common but unpopular. The penalty was for the guilty one to be fined heavily, and when a certain sum of money had thus been raised a monument was created with inscriptions warning others to be good.
